12 MINUTES MAX

12 Minutes Max is a year-round monthly performance series featuring short works by local artists in many disciplines. One Sunday a month, we present three original pieces in a varied mix, chosen from music, dance, film, writing, theater, performance art, and the like — each 12 minutes or less. The whole event is short and sweet, taking about an hour. After each month's performances, coffee and cookies are served — a time for conversation and feedback. · Sep 16

◆ TWO-DAY GRANT WRITING WORKSHOP

In this workshop, beginning grant writers will gain a greater understanding of what it takes to create a competitive grant application for your organization. You'll learn how to work with partners, evaluate success, and navigate The City Library's grant-seeking databases, including the Foundation Center's Foundation Directory Online. Visit slcpl.org to register. This workshop is presented in partnership with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. · Sep 27–28

◆ 3D PRINT WORKSHOP: BOTTLE OPENERS

Use OnShape to design a 3D-printed bottle opener with a penny. · Sep 12

9/11 COMMEMORATIVE FILM SCREENING:

EXTREMELY LOUD AND INCREDIBLY CLOSE

Oskar (Thomas Horn), who lost his father (Tom Hanks) in the 9/11 attack on the World Trade Center, is convinced that his dad left a final message for him somewhere in the city. Upon finding a mysterious key in his father's closet, Oskar sets out in search of the lock it fits. Feeling disconnected from his grieving mother (Sandra Bullock) and driven by a tirelessly active mind, Oskar has a journey of discovery that takes him beyond his loss and leads to a greater understanding of the world. · Sep 11

GREAT CHAPMAN OREO TASTE-OFF

The Oreo cookie is even older than the Chapman Branch! Today, it seems like there are almost as many Oreo varieties as there are books in the Library. Stop in and sample as many different Oreos as you can and vote for your favorite. Don't worry, we'll provide a glass of milk. · Sep 8

HOMEBUYING 101

Buying a home is exciting, but sometimes daunting experience. This class will help you learn the basics of home buying, including how to find grants, loans, and government financing programs, how to identify mistakes to avoid, what to expect from new builds, and how to purchase foreclosures. You'll leave feeling more confident about the next steps and with a clear vision of how the entire home-buying process comes together. Parents welcome — we'll have activities to keep kids entertained while you learn! This class will be taught by Jeff Warner, Principal Broker and Real Estate Adviser for Buy Utah Homes Realty. · Sep 17 & 26

📖 MONDAYS ARE MURDER: CRIME FICTION DISCUSSION GROUP

This is the city — The City Library, that is. Within these walls you'll find thousands of books, covering any topic you can think of. Sometimes, these books turn to a life of crime. That's where you come in. You carry a library card. Join other Day-Riverside detectives and amateur criminologists for this monthly reading discussion group. You won't need to piece together the clues to learn about great new and classic crime fiction titles. Each month we'll highlight a different sub-genre, and you'll be encouraged to discuss your favorite reading recommendations. Tea and other cozy drinks will be served, as befitting civilized sleuths. · Sep 10

📌 NEW READERS BOOK CLUB

The City Library has a reading group for adults who are new to reading. We take turns reading from the same book and talk about it as we go. This is a fun way to get better at reading. The reading group meets on the first and third Mondays of each month at 4:30pm. To join this group, call Stephanie at 801-322-8131. · Sep 17
